

Canolfan Saith Seren January - February

Following the closure of Siop y Siswrn, a partnership was arranged with Lowri of Siop Cwlwm, Oswestry, to hold a pop-up shop in Saith Seren every fortnight.

We celebrated our 5th birthday with a great party in the company of the Rhos Orpheus choir at the end of January

The Monday night Clwb Clebran, and the 'Viva Voce' literary group combined to arrange a very successful evening.

We are very fortunate to have wonderful local band who attract customers to Saith every week-end. Here are 'Made in Wales' performing.

We enjoyed a wonderful evening in the company of Huw Chiswell. He told the stories behind his songs and everyone in the audience had a great time

Theatr Ifanc y Rhos came to Saith Seren to celebrate the end of the season, and Wrexham F.C. Captain Robbie Evans came to present the awards.

Canolfan Saith Seren

March 2017

Our St. David's Day Festival started with a successful disco for the town's pupils with the DJ Owain Llyr.

At the weekend, the children of Ysgol Bodhyfryd, and other schools came to perform in a 'Mini Eisteddfod'.

The girl band 'Paradwys' performed and charmed the audience. Talulha, Erin, Elizabeth, Lucy and Elin are pupils at Ysgol Morgan Llwyd.

'Blue Genes' performed a beautiful set of songs on the Saturday night. Stephen, Kay, and daughter Megan are Welsh speakers from Coedpoeth.

The highlight of the celebrations was the visit of the band 'Daniel Lloyd a Mr. Pinc'. It was also a reunion of former YMLI and was an unforgettable night.

Later in the month the folk band Gwibdaith Hen Fran came and we had a fun-filled evening with a full bar of reverllers!

Canolfan Saith Seren March-April 2017

The comedian Emyr Himyrs Jones came to entertain us and we had a very amusing evening.

The monthly bilingual quiz continues to be very popular. Come down on the 6th of June.

The Wine and Chocolate evening organised by Menter Maelor was very successful with forty people attending the event.

Thanks to Einir Jones of Merched y Wawr for organising the visit of the Pen Llyn folk band, 'Patrobas'. They were truly wonderful and very charming lads.

Thanks also to Clwb Clebran for arranging a lovely evening with Manon Steffan Ros performing her beautiful songs.

Lastly, thanks to Aled Lewis Evans for organising the visit of Alys Conran as a part of the Festival of Words in Wrexham.